1. The following general information on German political developments is being disseminated to Soviet Military Government officers:
 - a. The Deutsche Wirtschaftskommission (DWK) will become the foundation of the Soviet-sponsored German Government with the paramilitary police cadre for an army. Personnel are cautioned never to use the term "Eastern" government. The Soviets will avoid all actions appearing to split Germany.
 - b. The Soviet Zone will adopt a new constitution based on that of the Weimar Republic. This will demonstrate the Soviet desire for German unity.
 - c. The growth of the Peasant (DBP) and National (NDP) parties will be encouraged in order to reduce the following of the LDP and the CDU.
 - d. After the Peasant and the National parties are firmly grounded, the Soviets plan the establishment of a National Unity Party at the expense of all present Soviet Zone political parties.
